

Mission Statement

“Reality is for the weak.” We’ve kept a variant of that sign up for... going about six hundred years now. It’s the first thing that prospective acolytes see as they come up the mountain trail, which is carefully not kept in good order. We repeat that sign at regular intervals, too. Generally just before treacherous twists on the trail, deadfalls, at least one snow wasp nest. The goal is to keep them coming, all ready to bend reality to their will, because they’re strong.

Only thing is, that slogan isn’t a sneer at the weak. It’s a promise to them.
