

Terror, Hot

“Nobody has ever died in Indiana.” That was the revelation that should have meant the biggest case of my career. Except that... sure, it's true. So what?

Immortality's a 'so what?' Well, it is when you can't do anything with the information. It hurts people's heads when they think about the Indiana thing too much, so the government suppresses it. And you can't blame them, because once you're the one thinking about it too much, you feel the pain and restlessness. And then, the Urge to visit Terre Haute. Nobody ever leaves Terre Haute, either.

Nice library, though, I'm told.
