

This Is Too Easy

They needed four hours to escape. That's what the captain said, just before I closed the door on him and the rest, then secured it. I figured that they needed more like six. Well, it's been two days now.

The things chasing us, they came at me stupid; and the things they carried, I could use to hold this room. And I have! I'm holding it real good. I could do this forever. Which is why I'm going to go charge those things and die, instead of going through the door to look for the captain.

This is too easy.
