

Honorable Retirement

I am the veteran of a war you have never heard of. When the glaciers roared down from the Pole and turned the Great Lakes into a blood-ice battlefield we were the ones that held them back from Chicago. For five years my life was ice, wendigos, and war. But then we won!

Well, we didn't win. Our hidden masters changed the timeline so that the invasion never happened. But first they took us, their loyal soldiers, and honorably retired us to this tropical paradise. Now, the only ice I ever see is in my drink.

I miss the cold.
