Curiosity

I asked Curiosity, "What is the difference between you and your brother Discovery?"

She hummed her feathery wings a bit, opalescent scales shifting in the late summer light. "Discovery... wants to see, and I want to know. So that's why we go on adventures together!" Curiosity quirked her head, forked tongue tasting the breeze. "You should go on an adventure with us, too!"

I shook my head, ruefully. "Why would you need a human for an adventure?"

Cheerful laughter. "So that the adventure's real, silly! It's not as real if Humans don't see us do it. ...Besides, you have hands."
