

Market Sharer

“So, you’re risking everything for... a pencil?”

The angel smiled at the pencil in my hand. “The idea of them, at least. There was a parable that one of your sages used to tell about them! Do you know it?”

“Sages? Oh, him. But that’s just a story for teaching people why global markets are good. Pencils aren’t that important.”

The angel gave me a Look that reminded me why Scripture always had them starting conversations with Fear Not. “It is that important to me. And for Those whom I follow.” The angel then relaxed. “Others have different priorities, perhaps.”
