

Tale From the Lost Emotional Baggage Office

I put the first 'Lost Emotional Baggage Office' sign up as a joke, OK? My boss was having a bad day, I thought it'd give him a laugh. It did: eventually he even had a real sign made up. He said that we deal with every other kind of lost luggage for the airline, so why not branch out?

Then Emotional Baggages started showing up, for real. We can always recognize 'em, somehow: maybe because they're always so ragged. We never see Baggages arrive. They're always just... there.

What? We shove 'em down the incinerator. Nobody's called in to complain.
