

Gotta Be Done

Closing Time is this tradition we came up with. Hey, when you do what we do, you need traditions. They keep you sane. Saner.

We don't need to make a big deal about throwing the switch that shuts the Maw long enough for it to consume the day's accumulated Chaos-touched. It doesn't make a difference: the Chaos-touched will still get expelled, and Earth will still move a bit more back from the brink. But we feel better when it's a big deal.

And hopefully you'll feel better, too. I mean, it's nothing personal, OK? We just don't have a choice.
