

Villains Of His Story

Understand: I don't blame you. Obviously, you want to live. You don't want me to eliminate your entire timeline, and you with it. And since this... this Hell on Earth seems perfectly normal, you sensibly decline to reciprocate my empathy.

No doubt you've heard speeches like mine before, with a sneer. I'm not sneering. I respect you. It's easy to be a good, decent person in the true history. But to do that in this timeline? You and your transtemporal colleagues are better than me, because you've clawed yourselves half-out of Hell.

But my timeline is infinitely better than yours.
