

Rational Theurgy

I am not the God of Beggars. I am a god who takes beggars for worshippers. Human devotion is human devotion, and very few of my fellow gods will stoop to recruit among the alleyways and sewers.

They're a work in progress, really. I am neither looking to inspire beggars off the street, nor turn them into an unstoppable shadow army. I seek to sustain their belief, and thus myself. Doing so requires a certain number of ongoing miracles on my part, which is fine. That's usually the arrangement.

But I care about them just as much as you do.
