

They Don't Do Much

I don't know if the AIs have taken over. We're not supposed to go into their territory without permission, and they enforce that: but their whole territory is one hundred square acres of semi-arid Utah badlands. If they're manipulating us otherwise, it's really hard to tell.

Besides, we're not sure if they're even the same AIs: it's been ten years, and they've already gone through seventy-nine civilizations (that we know of). AIs simply perceive time and space differently than us.

So, everything's fine? Nope! Things could still go horribly bad, without warning. We just try not to think about it.
