I have a little space under my desk for when the firefights start. It's really very clever; there's a light, and places to plug in your laptop, and the edges are all rounded and padded. It's just the thing you need when some jackass has scheduled their Final Assault on The Lair during crunch time.

The only problem with the setup is that you never actually see the firefight itself. Mostly, what you see are legs. Uniformed legs, wetsuit legs, a lot of legs in high-heeled go-go boots; one time I even saw spacesuit legs! That was a weird one...
