

Lucidity

Okay it's very simple, I'm sorry this is causing you trouble, but it's about pentacles, pentacles they aren't solid, see, they're multidimensional arrays and you can't graph five maybe six dimensions in a two dimensional matrix and expect it to make sense, you just can't, you need volume for the third dimension and time for the fourth, so that's why the smoke and the glass box you're in, but on the bright side, if this doesn't work then the demon won't appear so I won't use the knife to get your ink for the retroactive pattern, I'm not a monster.
