

Market Equilibrium

The folks from Somewhere Else want our revolvers, and they're willing to trade us healing potions for them. That worked out fine for a while, until a bunch of damned fools (theirs and ours) tried to take over the trading place. Some people just can't help being grabby.

Now we got to have rules. Those potions ain't so cheap anymore, you know? Now we're jawing with those folks about trading a gunsmith for an alchemist, get into the potion business ourselves. There's money in that.

Nah, it should all work out. There's gotta be other stuff that we can trade.
