

Let Sleeping Djinni Lie

We shut ourselves in our bottles. Your legends never tell you that, do they? -- But it is the truth. The djinn are too strong for this world; we can smash holes through it without thinking. Reality itself breaks to our will, and we can only almost fix the damage seamlessly.

Why do we care about that? Because He does, and we are His obedient servants. A time will come when we will have a realm of our own, one that can withstand us.

Until then, leave our bottles be. We do not hate you. We do not love you, either.
