

He Wasn't Really Fitting In

Vampire goblins. Wow, that was a mistake, hey?

It wasn't even 'a good idea at the time.' Everybody told He That Corrupts The Night it was a bad idea to infect hyperactive chaos-bringers with a disease that turned them into blood-drinkers. You have to keep the peasants alive! Not 'at least a few,' either! You need as many as possible, because you like bread and monsters can't farm!

Still, it was funny, watching the Other Side scramble to fix it. Especially when they burned out He That Corrupts The Night's lair at the end. He was kind of annoying, anyway.
